Approved For Release 2006/09/29 : CIA-RDP66B00403R000100290039-6

SECRET

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 13 April 1964

1. [redacted] Advised Mrs. Watkins, in the office of Representative William H. Bates, that there is no evidence that [redacted] was ever employed in any capacity by this Agency but that we did have some information on him which indicated a possible connection between [redacted] Mrs. Watkins said she had not as yet received a reply to the Congressman's recent letter to [redacted] but she thanked me for this information. In the event she hears farther from [redacted] she will check with the Department of the Army. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1

2. [redacted] A further check with the office of Representative Samuel S. Stratton indicates he will not be able to visit the Agency for breakfast on 13 April as we had hoped to arrange. We will keep working on this. 25X1

3. [redacted] Contacted the office of Representative Donald G. Brotzman to determine if he would be available for breakfast at the Agency this week. His office is checking with the Congressman and will be in touch with us. 25X1

4. [redacted] Talked with Walter Besterman with reference to [redacted] despite reports we have received from the project. Mr. Besterman has grave reservations against pushing this with Congressman Feighan at this time. This will be taken up in detail with [redacted] of IO. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1

5. [redacted] Talked with Senator Cannon's office attempting to make arrangements for Colonel Ledford and John B. Warner to see the Senator possibly Wednesday or Thursday of this week. 25X1

6. [redacted] Mary Ann James, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called asking for some basic information on a [redacted] a German author and lecturer. 25X1 25X1 25X1

SECRET

Approved For Release 2006/09/29 : CIA-RDP66B00403R000100290039-6